Global Atlantic Financial As of 1/2017	For personal bankruptcy (Chapter 7 or 13), consideration will be given to modest amounts of coverage for family protection prior to discharge of the bankruptcy. After discharge of the bankruptcy, we will consider on a case by case basis based upon the facts presented. For all other bankruptcies we will review on a case by case basis once the bankruptcy has been discharged.
John Hancock As of 1/2017	Will consider if fully discharged and then review for purpose, need for insurable loss shown on a case by case basis.
Legal & General America As of 1/2017	Will consider someone in Chapter 13 for standard plus. MUST see petition and schedules and MUST be able to document 2 years of payments. Other factors taken into account: income, assets, and additional life insurance in force. All other bankruptcies declined until discharged and finances have been reestablished for some time.
Lincoln National As of 1/2017	Will consider coverage for Chapter 13, even if still in effect, but need to verify current income remaining after the bankruptcy filing (amount of take home after attached wages), the need for insurance and ability to pay for coverage. A detailed cover letter outlining why the bankruptcy was filed, time remaining until discharged, current employment and financial status, etc. would be required to give us as much background data as possible. All other bankruptcy cases cannot offer until they've been discharged.
MetLife As of 1/2017	Single Bankruptcy, any chapter if fully discharged over a year can be considered. Although, can possibly consider under one year depending on circumstances. Chapter 7: Generally do not consider until fully discharged. Chapter 11 or 13: Will consider if they are currently satisfying the debt through a repayment program; would need full financials. Multiple Bankruptcies, generally a postpone for 3 years, although we will look at them on an individual consideration basis if the situation warrants special consideration.
